General And Sir.—Last evening your sodden absence prevouted me from receiving your latest orders, and from condutting you about the official communication which you were about to hand over to the good Oidor-Navarro. I herewith enclose a copy.

You will comprishend, General, that in presence of questions of honor we ought not to vaciliate.

In capturing the eargo I did you an immonse service, and I did it rejecting the great fortune offered to me. The result has been and is very sad.

It is well that the affair Navasoues has obliged you to give to the trafficer Zuluets a protection that he does not morit; but it was not sufficient that my loyal subordinates abould suffer beneath the weight of entangled accusations, calumny and revenge.

I should have looked upon all this calmly for the sake of pleasing you, who had requested me not to promote cofficient of any kind. To please you I would sacrifice my life; but my houer and that of my subordinates, neither for you not for any man.

I depart with the hope that all this will be ended during the twenty days of furlough in New York which you have so kindly granted me, and that on my return I shall render you my services with my accustomed loyality. If it is not so I shall be obliged, though with sorrow, to declare to the world on which side justice and reason are to be found. Yours, respectfully.

DOCUMENT NO. 4.

New York, April 11, 1864.

To the Editor of the New York Herald:

Size—The Licutenant Governor of a district in the Island of Cuba, mentioned by your correspondent from flavana in his letter of the 24 of April, published in your issue of to day, cannot answer, as he zhould, the serious accusations or insignations contained in that letter, without accusing in the mest solemn and grave manner the constituted authorities of that unhappy country. Important considerations in ose silence upon him until the next return of the steamer Eagle.

I limit myself now to the statement that I have arrived at New York with passport and permi-sion of the government; that my embarkation in Havana was public and known by a 1, and by the superior authority from whom I took leaved.

Though by declaring that I have been the only Lieu-tenant Governor that has captured and sent to the government a shipment of 1,073 negroes (boxsles), thus showing a proof of respect to the international treation, and parsecuting the infanous trade in human flesh.

I remain yours, respectfully,

JOSE A. ARGUEILES.

Emio Senor Marquis de CASPELL-FLORTEZ:—
GENERAL AND SIR.—By the Morning Star, arrived at this nort on the 10th, has been received and published theorem which you will see in the Metanger Prance-Americain, which I enclose. The other papers have copieded, and in all appears my provisional and dignified insurer.

ame time in which they publish here the de-of another cargo of negroes at the Ensenada de. I receive its details in a complete manner, convince you that the Older Navarre asked for

At the same time in which they publish here the debarkation of another cargo of negroes at the Ensenada de Clenfuegos I receive its details in a complete manner. That will convince you that the Oidor Navarro asked for my departure from Guba in order to facilitate the disembarkation by the common consent of the stavers. The consummation of the fact renders all arguments useless. I had also informed you that the Oidor Navarro has been bribed, and everybody knows from whom and attrough whom he has received forty thousand dollars. Such immorality and such scandal in that unhappy country seem incredible.

They notify me of the voyage of Balbos to Madrid and the instructions which he bears. I repeat it, losamy hastens to scatter calcumy; truth and honor are never precipitate. Farewell, and good voyage to the official agent of the slave traders, the cousin of the purchased Oidor. But I will be always very much surprised that you have put faith in him, knowing, as you did, his evil proceedings.

Some friends write me that in that city they are forming a plan of rending an assassin against me. I read it with a smile of contempt.

We must, General, bolieve blindly in the providence of God. Remember the year 1864, in which you put me in a had predicament in the paince of our kings, and among my friends and political clubs. I suffered and was silent, hecause iofty, very lefty, considerations imposed this duty on me. I have always been loyal.

But in the year 1864, God, against my will, put me in your way. He obliges me to show you, for the second time, my loyalty; and, as you endeaver to repay it with any dishonor, I must break a silence that would be criminal. And this, General, in not Providence.

In the year 1853 and in 1863 I was, without soliciting it, your good angel. In the former I delivered you from a just process, contributing to make you occupy a high position. In the latter I saved your honor, by capturing a cargo done thousand and seventy three boxles, for the admission of which an accusation had already been

sentation:

What is the meaning of the entrance of four vessels of negroes, three full and three short, introduced in the stand on these hast days, to which the Messager France-American alludes in its issue of the 12th of April?

With what reason the slave trader Zuluets, Alcaide of Mavana, assures respectable persons that he is obliged to give one hundred thousand dollars for every shipment. Why does he pay? and who receives the money?

What is the meaning of those last appointments of the subordinate authorities by General Dulce?

Why was Duranous exiled and Zulueta let free and furmished with a passport, the crime of both being the same, and committed at the same time?

Why have the boxales selved at Las Pozas been returned and declared saves when the government of the island has declared free the innumerable emancipades solved after the treaties abolishing the negro trader and why are these unhappy in a worse condition than the real slaves?

yere, negroes were introduced into the island? Could it be proved, as I prove is to-day, to him who is now railing?

What would the gallant and noble General Lersundi say if he knew the unworthy interpretation given to his politic and disinterested lotter, written as Secretary of War to General Delice?

Int !cogrees wait, let public opinion wait; they will have sufficient proofs to give a definitive sentence.

Naw York, April 18, 1864.

P. S.—The supplement to the Naw York Hearth of the 25th of April contains a correspondence from Havans, in which it is stated that a most influential planter and other persons had been arrested for the fraudulent in-froduction of negroes. My private correspondence gives me the same intelligence, as well as the names of the persons arrested. Certainty I do not think that I have the same motives for not mentioning their names as the correspondent of the Naw York Harath; but if I disdain to mention them I will not be prevented from antibiling the facets to public opinion, which it is sought to surprise and deceive by a legal comeany, whose fore seen development and foregone conclusion, between General Indic and his magistrates delive they should be—not blushing to add reference to the terrible responsibility which weight appn them.

Judge Marvin Refuses to Interfere in the Matter, &c.

Before Judge Marvie.

Aran 26.—The People w. Herace Greeley.—The application for a writ of prohibition in the Greeley contempt case was denied this morning by Judge Marvin; 30 that the matter resse entirely in the hands of Judge Barnare, Oyer and Terminer. After giving a resume of the case as it now stands, and relating what efforts were made to obtain the writ of prohibition, the Judge proceeds to deny the application in the following language:—

It is a duty imposed upon all courts to preserve order in court, and see to it that its precedings are not information or that the respect and authority due the court are not impaired; and the statute to enable the court of discharge that duty confers the necessary powers upon the court. The court may act upon its own motion and make the accusation, causing the party accused to be solified, and giving him a reasonable time for his defence. The case is not like numerous cases arising under the statutes, requiring certain facts to be proved by affidavits before the court is authorized to issue certain process specified. In those cases the jurisdiction depends upon the preliminary proofs, shown in the manner specified by the statute. I do not regard it as necessary in this case to enter upon a discussion of the province of the writ of prehibition, though I have examined the law and the cases cited. It is enough to say that this writ, issued out of this court, to restrain subordinate couries and interior judicial tribunals from exceeding their jurisdiction, in the case of Appo vs. the People, twentieth New York Reports, page 544, the Court of Oyer and Terminer was about to grant a new trial in a case of odivicion for felony is that court, and this court prohibited that court from granting a new trial, on the ground that it had no jurisdiction upon that subject. The law is well settled in numerous cases. In this case the Court of Oyer and Terminer has jurisdiction touching contempt, and this court, has no rejet to interfere touching the practice of that court. Complaints are made in the proposed proceedings, With these questions this court, upon this relation, has no concern. If the proceedings of the Court of Oyer and Terminer has no right to interfere touching the practice of that court, as no rejet to t

COURT OF OVER AND TERMINER. Before Judge Barnard.

APRIL 26.—The People vs. Horace Greeley.—The court baving opened with the usual "Hear ye," District Attorney Hall rose and stated that, Deputy Sheriff Riley having served the attachment upon Horace Greeley the evening previous, at the Tribute office, the defendant would not appear this morning to give bail, as agreed upon. He was informed that Mr. Greeley gave bail in upon. He was informed that Mr. Greeley gave bail in the sum of $1,000, in his own recognizance, to appear at eleven o'clock on Thursday morning; so that the matter was disposed of for the present.

MURDER CASES SERT TO THE GENERAL SUSCIONS.

The contempt case having been disposed of, Mr. Hall announced that it was impossible to secure the attendance of jurors, in consequence of the moving season, and suggested that the murder cases on the calendar is transferred to the Court of General Sessions, where they could be disposed of next month.

Judge Barnard thought that it would be well to discharge the petit jury for the term, and directed the clerk to make the announcement.

The court then adjourned until Thursday, at eleven o'clock, when the contempt case will be desposed of.

The Evening Express Case. COURT OF COMMON PLRAS—GENERAL TERM. APRIL 26.—Stephen Clark vs. James and Evastus Brooks to day. Mr. R binson appeared for the plaintiff and Messrs. McKeon and Smyth for the defendants. Mr. Messrs. McKeon and Smyth for the defendants. Mr. James Brooks was present during the argument, and seemed to take a lively interest in the proceedings.

Mr. Robinson submitted his points in defence of Judge Hilton's order, and claimed that the sale of the paper would not in any way affect the issues to be tried in the partnership suit. Mr. Clark was an admitted partner in the Evening Express, the term of partnership had expired, and he now wanted to secure his sacets of the business. The defendants object to the sale of the paper on the ground that it would be injurious to the interests of all parties; but thege was really no way in which she plaintiff could come into possession of his just duce except by a sale of the newspaper and a division of the assets. In the course of his remarks the councel took occasion to reflect somewhat severely upon the course which Mr. McKeon pursued on the previous day, when Judge Daly called him to order, and reminded him that the remarks of his opponent were drawn out by the manner in which his (Mr. Robinson's) points were couched. The counsel apologized to the Court, saying that thee points were not prepared by him, and that if the language in which he presented them was disrespectful he would throw himself upon the magnaminity of the Bench. Judge Daly remarked that the perdisrespectful he would throw himself upon the magna-nimity of the Bench. Judge Daly remarked that the per-son who drew the points was unnecessarily harsh in his language; but he did not think the counsel meant any dis-respect towards the Court.

Mr. McKeon's reply to the argument of his adversary was got off in his usual obstracteristic style, and attracted considerable attention.

The Court took the papers and reserved its decision.

UNITED STATES CIRCUIT COURT.
Before Judge Hall.
APRIL 26.—In the case of the United States against Geo. W. Cunningbam, captain of the ship Senator at the time of her loss, the District Attorney at the opening of the of her loss, the District Attorney at the opening of the court said.—I desire to ask your Honor to enter a nolle prosequi in this case. The prosecution finds itself in this position: we lose the testimony of the witness Thompson, convicted of the crime of aburglary in Maine, which disqualities him as a witness in a court of justice. Another witness, whose testimony would be important, could be regarded jin no other light, if his statements were to be relied on, than as an accomplice in the crime he would charge against another. By the just laws which control the courts, juries cannot convict on the testimony of an accomplice alone. The case the just laws which control the courts, juries cannot convict on the testimony of an accomplice alone. The case was first taken up by me on the strongest assurances that it was one demanding judicial investigation. But, all proof having failed me, I ask to have a nelle prosequi entered, and that without any redection on the accused. The Court—The order can be entered, of course.

Mr. Noyes did not think it was needful to enter an order to discharge the recognizance.

The Court—That is entered, of course, when the nelle prosequi is entered The case is no longer in court.

Captain Cunningham received the congratulations of his friends at the termination of this long standing case. The nolle prosequi is equivalent to a complete vindication, and a purging of the charge against him.

Board of Supervisors.

The Board of Supervisors met yesterday afternoon, Su-pervisor I weed in the chair.

pervisor Iweed in the chair.

A geto was received from Mayor Gunther of the resolution of the Board authorizing the payment of the monthly salaries of the engineers and clerks employed on Harlem bridge, on the ground that the work was being done by contract, thus relieving the Board from further expenses, and because the county of Westcherter is equally liable with New York. Another veto was read of sundry bills for fitting up drillirooms at Palace Garden. One of these was a bill of $4,831 66 for iron work, at twenty-three to forty cents a pound, while the Mayor states that a responsible company informed him that they would not charge more than twelve and a half cents a pound all gound for the work.

The Ninety minth regiment New York National Guard sent in a communication thanking the Board for providing them with a new drillroom.

A number of veto messages—from the Mayor on sundry subjects were taken up and passed over the vetoes, and, after disposing of a large batch of routine papers, the Board adjourned to Tueeday next.
